The screenshot shows the IBM account creation page. On the left, there's a header with the IBM logo and the text "Create your IBM account" followed by "Access to trials, demos, starter kits, services and APIs". Below this is a colorful abstract graphic. On the right, there's a section titled "Sign up for an IBMid" with a link "Already have an IBM account? Log in". Below this, there's a form with the following fields: "E-mail" (containing "811319104025@smartinternz.com"), "First name" (containing "sundar"), "Last name" (containing "sk"), "Password" (masked with dots), "Country or region of residence" (a dropdown menu showing "India"), and "Company" (containing "college of engineering and technology"). There's a "Next" button at the bottom of the form. A "Sign in with LinkedIn" button is also present with the text "AutoFill your information".

Step 2: Now goto cloud.ibm.com and login with your registered mail id along with coupon code obtained from ibm.com/academic

The screenshot shows the IBM login page. At the top, there's a header with the IBM logo and the text "Log in to IBM". Below this, there's a form with the following fields: "IBMId" (containing "811319104025@smartinternz.com"), a "Remember me" checkbox (checked), and a "Continue" button. There's a link "Forgot IBMId?" next to the IBMId field. Below the form, there's a link "Don't have an account? Create an IBMid". At the bottom, there's a link "Need help? Contact the IBMid help desk". The footer contains links for "Contact", "Privacy", "Terms of use", "Accessibility", and "Cookie preferences". On the right, it says "Powered by IBM Security Verify". The bottom of the page shows a Windows taskbar with various icons and a system tray showing the date and time.
